1. This is a first Office action on the merits for application serial number 10/025279 filed 12/06/01. Claims 1-8 are pending.

2. The examiner acknowledges receipt of the IDS filed 03/05/02. An initialed copy of the 1449 forms is attached. Note that no copy of UK 1 367 (1871) was provided. As such the reference has not been considered.

3. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they do not include the following reference sign(s) mentioned in the description: first surface 28 (page 6). A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance. ✓

4. The drawings are objected to because the two figures under the heading Figure 14 should be bracketed "}" to clearly indicate that they are together considered Figure 14. A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance. ✓

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3635

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in-

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or

(2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

6. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S.

Patent 6,357,462 to Laosunthara et al.

Laosunthara et al. provides a plurality of frame elements 11 having flexible material 12 attached thereto to form panel elements which are attached together to form a perimeter enclosure. A flexible covering element 30 is removably secured to the panel elements. Both the flexible material 12 and the covering element 30 are provided with different visible patterns on each side thereof and are reversible.

7. Claims 1 and 3-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent 4,709,718 to Nichols.

Nichols provides a removable flexible covering element 10 over a tent having flexible panels attached to frame elements. Both the flexible panels and covering element inherently have a visible pattern on each side.

8. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent 6,010,176 to Jones.

Jones provides reversible and removable covers on the exterior surface of a frame. The covers have different patterns on each side thereof.

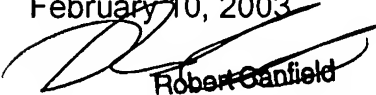

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
